Dear Miss Weston,

By the hands of Dr. Sargent, who arrived in the Baltic, I had a budget of very pleasant, & most interesting letters & papers from Mr. & Miss Estlin. They have both been, & still are, in very infirm health, yet the fire of truth & devotion burns as steadily & brightly in their souls as ever — yes, it appears to me, more than ever before. I want you to see their letters; also, I or I recollect ^{by the Estlins} received, from that orthodox London lady, Isabella Magie. She outdoes Stephen & Abby Foster, in the vehemence of her denunciation of the American pro-slavery ministers; — nor does she the English ministers.

I enclose you a letter, which 37 came in the parcel by Dr. Sargent.

Ms. A. 9. 2. 4. 35

Mr. & Miss Co. are very warmly drawn towards yourself, by the acquaintance they have formed with your sisters. - Mrs. Mapie has seen your letter to Miss Wigham, & is greatly pleased with it. She attributes to you the St. Denis of your sister Caroline in the last Liberty Bell. You shall see her Letters, some extracts of which I mean to get published in the Liberator.

Will you send me the amount of money received by you ^{for Bazaar,} in addition to what you have paid me, and also the amount paid out by you or your sister? Both these may be stated in a general form; e.g. Cash rec^d. by A.W.W. for expenses of Bazaar, $ - -. Cash paid out by A.W.W. for sundry expenses, $ - -. Don't you think it would be well & proper? It swells the expenses to be sure, in appearance, but so it does, the receipts.

Yrs. truly J. May Jr.
